SOCIAL CHATTER AND HOME TALK

EASTER.

(By Frances K. Gillett)

Art thou a garden, Easter,
Wherein the sleeping seeds
Waken and long for sunshine,
Blossoming to fill our needs?

Art thou a rainbow's promise,
Bringing a message bright
To hearts that are faint with longing,
Longing for life and light?

Art thou akin to sunrise,
Shedding its crimson glow
Over each hill and valley,
Bidding the darkness go?

Art thou a glimpse of heaven,
Peopled with angels fair,
Living in many mansions,
Knowing no sadness there?

What'er thou art, thine advent
Feeling of kinship gives,
All that is best within us
Wakens from sleep, and lives!

Mrs. Scott in Hongkong

Mrs. James Scott and two children, who have been making their home in Hongkong during Mr. Scott's absence in Formosa, were present at the third "Prize Day" at the Victoria British schools and one of the youngsters, Randolph Scott, received the prize for composition. The schools are usually good in Hongkong and Americans and English families profit thereby. Mr. Scott, who was in Hongkong for then, attended the exercises, an account of which is extracted from the Hongkong Telegraph of March 11th. Several well known Honolulu names are noticed in the list of those present:

"The youngsters attending the Victoria British School, which is situated at Caroline Hill Road, were in great glee today, the occasion being the annual distribution of prizes. The little class-room, which was artistically decorated with evergreen and bright colored bunting, was well filled with interested spectators when His Excellency Sir Frederick Lugard arrived.

His Excellency was accompanied by Mr. A. J. Brackenbury, private secretary, and was received by Mr. E. D. C. Wolfe, Inspector of schools, and Mr. W. H. Williams, the headmaster. "Among those present were:—Dr. G. H. Bateson Wright, Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Hickling, Mrs. W. H. Williams, Mrs. Blanch, Mrs. Hocking, Miss Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Young Hee, Mrs. Stubbs, Mrs. and Miss Wilks, Miss Taynton, Miss David, Miss Steele, Mr. and Mrs. McNeil, Mrs. and Miss Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Silverstone, Mr. and Mrs. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Hobbs, Mr. and Mrs. Brett, and others.

"The proceedings opened with a little musical program, which was carefully prepared by the management of the school, and there is much to be said, that each scholar did justice to his or her part."

Mrs. Swanzy Entertained

The luncheon given by Mrs. F. M. Swanzy on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond, was a decided success. Mrs. Bond was particularly brilliant and entertaining, and the guests asked to meet her were charmed. Mrs. Swanzy's luncheons are always appetizing, dainty food and an artistic grouping of flowers, as well as agreeable conversation providing a harmonious and restful effect. Mrs. Bond's departure the first of next week is regretted by everybody. Her recital at Mrs. Lowrey's residence next Monday night at 8 o'clock being looked forward to with much anticipation.

Kubelik Is Coming

Kubelik will arrive in Honolulu on the next Canadian-Australian steamer and will give his concert at the Opera House May 1 or 2. The tickets are now on sale at Wall, Nichols Co. "Musical America" tells the following story of Kubelik playing with wandering musicians:

Jan Kubelik, the Bohemian violinist, who is scheduled to make his first appearance this season in New York, at the Hippodrome on November 19, is the subject of some interesting illustrations, reproduced here from the London Sketch. The larger picture shows the distinguished artist lined up with some wandering musicians who recently came to play before his castle at Kopa. An account of Kubelik's home life in his Bohemian Castle has already been given in Musical America. One can easily imagine that, standing at the window watching these itinerant musicians, Kubelik was overcome with a desire to drop his dignity long enough to join them. A man with a camera happened to be nearby, and the results are shown herewith. His instrument was a tobacco pipe. In the other illustrations are shown Mary and Anne, Kubelik's twin daughters, who, according to the Sketch, show little respect for the violin on this particular occasion. Mme. Kubelik was formerly Countess Marianne von Czaky Szell, and her twin daughters share her name.

The rehearsals for the Mascot are increasing in interest, for the principals and chorus are buckling down to their work in a very professional manner. Mr. Herzog is an excellent manager, keeping constantly in touch with everybody and doing three men's work in one. Much can be expected from "Ma Cherie," with Mrs. Walter Macfarlane, Jr., Misses Marion Roth, Constance Restarick, Wadman, Blair, Alice Cooper, Annabel Low, Blanche Soper, Ada Rhodes, Alice Cooper, all pretty girls, and then "Sonny" Cunha, that prince of fun-makers, Honolulu will certainly have a good laugh in "What the Milkman Sees." Mrs. Crook's acting and voice are well known, and her beautiful face and figure will be at its best in the quaint costumes. The Alameda brought the costumes, which are very pretty. I wonder if the girls of the chorus and principal will wear them? If they do Honolulu public would gladly pay five dollars per, but knowing Honolulu amateurs in the past, I am quite sure they will be modified. The patronesses include Mesdames W. F. Frear, Geo. R. Carter, Princess Kawannana, E. A. Mott-Smith, E. D. Tenney, Geo. Herbert, J. S. McGrew, Eben Low, H. B. Restarick, W. W. Hall, C. B. Cooper, H. M. von Holt, J. F. Morgan, F. A. Schaefer, F. W. Macfarlane, C. M. Cooke, Paul Isenberg, S. Parker, J. Lucas, M. Phillips, J. Castle, E. I. Spalding, W. D. Adams, A. Wilder, C. A. Holloway, C. W. C. Deering, J. A. McCandless, W. L. Hepper, L. L. McCandless, A. G. Hawes, Jr., F. H. Humphris, E. S. Cunha, A. Fuller, Robert Atkinson, Robert Lewers, James Wilder, A. F. Wall, S. B. Dole, G. P. Wilder, F. M. Swanzy, S. M. Damon, F. J. Lowrey, A. Gantley, H. R. Macfarlane Jr., S. M. Angus, B. F. Dillingham and Miss N. Winston.

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond's recital at Mrs. Lowrey's on Monday evening, April 29, will not only include the "Song of Hawaii," but several new melodies. The patronesses are Mrs. Walter Frear, Mrs. E. A. Mott-Smith,

Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, Mrs. Frederic J. Lowrey, Mrs. Edward D. Tenney, Mrs. Frank Atherton, Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, Mrs. Arthur Wall, Mrs. George Herbert, Mrs. Giffard, Mrs. Charles Cooper, Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Bliss, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. Samuel Damon, Mrs. Sanford B. Dole, Mrs. Tenney Peck, Mrs. Augustus Knudsen.

This afternoon Admiral Very will be complimented by a concert arranged in his honor by the Royal Hawaiian band, at the Naval Station from 1.30 until 3 o'clock. Admiral Very will soon be retired from his command at the Naval Station by Captain Ross. The Admiral goes to Newton Center, Massachusetts, where his wife and children are. He has a beautiful home in the pleasant suburb and thinks it the garden spot of the world, during the spring and summer months.

Mr. Howard Hedemann, who has been ill for some time, is taking a trip in the Nebraska for his health.

Cards are out for a dramatic reading of Job by the College Club at the residence of Mrs. B. L. Marx.

Mrs. Clifford Wood and family are quite enjoying their European trip. They are at the Eternal City—Rome, and Mrs. Wood's letters descriptive of that wonderful old city read like a story book so full are they of vivid and unusual information. Miss Dorothy Wood is very much improved in health, and Sanford Wood is quite absorbing the atmosphere of the old Roman town.

NEW MARRIAGE RULES.

In all the Catholic churches announcements have been made that beginning on Easter Sunday the new marriage laws of the Church will go into effect. In explaining the new decree concerning "sponsalia" and matrimony which was promulgated at Rome last August parish priests have defined a valid and canonical betrothal or marriage engagement as one in which a written contract is drawn up and signed by the man and woman in the presence of a priest or two lay witnesses.

"The new legislation does not impose on persons about to marry an obligation to make these formal prenuptial engagements in writing and before witnesses as a prerequisite for marriage," says Archbishop Farley's letter on the subject. "They may be married as hitherto after a simple verbal promise of marriage given to each other."

Miss Frances K. Gillett, a sister of Mrs. Arthur Young, has written some very interesting verses, and her little poems are always eagerly looked for. She contributes regularly to several eastern papers, and has also written prose poems which have been favorably commented upon. While visiting her sister, and Mrs. McGrew a few years ago she made many lifelong friends.

There will be an Easter sale of pretty articles today in the empty shop, corner of Beretania and Fort streets, opposite the fire station, by the members of the Waiolaha Boat Club, the object being to raise money enough to get a boat house and racing barge of their own. The public will surely respond and help the good cause along.

Captain and Mrs. Albert Niblack, well known here, are most comfortably situated on "the Santee", Annapolis. This ship used to be a man-of-war and the Niblack have it artistically fitted, and many a friendly cup of tea is brewed by the fair hostess for her guests.

Mrs. E. M. Watson is having most enjoyable times at the home of her parents in Visalia. She was given a large tea at which were many old friends, who greeted her most enthusiastically. Mrs. Watson and daughter expect to return to Honolulu in three months' time.

Mrs. Turman will give a series of interesting lectures in the Kiloheua Art League rooms, the first of the series to be given a week from today. The first view reception of the Kiloheua Art League will be on the evening of Tuesday, April 21st, at 8 o'clock.

Col. and Mrs. S. Parker and family are enjoying the Tantalus breezes at their mountain home. The Parkers with the little Kapioian expect to make an extended tour to the States in May, the Misses Beatrice and Muriel Campbell meeting them in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Crompton, who are domiciled at the Moana, are quite enjoying their visit in Honolulu. Mrs. Crompton is a pretty and interesting woman, and, as Miss Sears of Boston, was quite a belle in the exclusive set of the Massachusetts town.

Mrs. Josephine Cornwall was a returning passenger in the Sherman, after a delightful three months spent in California. She is at present the guest of Mrs. E. Brown, of College Hills.

Mrs. Parke of Beretania avenue celebrated her 77th birthday on Palm Sunday. She is one of the best known and most highly esteemed citizens and has always occupied a high social position both here and elsewhere. Miss Annie Parke is still at Johnson sanatorium slowly recovering from a nervous breakdown.

A large audience assembled at St. Andrew's last evening to hear the second rendering of Stainer's "Crucifixion." In the choir were fully forty voices under the direction of Mr. R. R. Hode and the grand and impressive music was magnificently sung. The soloists were Mrs. Alexander Lindsey, Jr., Mrs. D. Howard Hitehcock, Mr. T. Clive Davies, Mr. Arthur F. Wall and Judge Stanley. They gave a finished performance of the grand music, which appeals directly to the hearts of all. Mr. Hode's good work is too well known to comment upon further.

The Congress of Song will begin on May 14th and it will be held in the old Fishmarket, thanks to Mrs. W. M. Graham's unceasing activity. The cantata "Rose Maiden" will be given under the able conductors of Mr. Stanley Livingston. Kamehameha Boys' School, as well as the school for girls, Mills' Institute, High School, Normal School, will all contribute to the chorus. Mrs. Mackall will be the soprano soloist and that in itself is enough to guarantee its success. It must be a notable event, with so much talent and brains to manage the affair.

Mr. and Mrs. Gribbman, who are at the Young, expect to sail for San Rafael in the Korea. Mrs. Ellen Weaver also departs in the same popular steamer.

Dr. and Mrs. Harvey Murray have taken the von Holt place at Waikiki for a term of months. Their house on Keenaukua street is for rent furnished. It is centrally located and most desirable from every point of view.

Mrs. Mary Widdifield will visit Mrs. Harry Lewis for a few weeks. She arrives today from Hilo, where she has been living with her daughter, Mrs. Byron Baird, since her arrival from the Coast a few months ago.

Mrs. Dunning, the handsome wife of Major Dunning, returned in the Sherman. She has been greatly injured, not only at Fort Shafter but at all social functions where she is a favorite.

Thursday night was the scene of a most enjoyable chowder at the Country Club, Mr. and Mrs. Galt entertaining for Mr. and Mrs. Strong, relatives of former Governor and Mrs. Carter.

The Misses Harriet Hatch and Dorothy Perkins, daughter of the famous George, were at the Annapolis home a few weeks ago. Mrs. Hatch chaperoned them.

Mr. and Mrs. Lichtfield are at Santa Cruz, California, for the latter's health. He has not yet recovered from the motor accident received while here.

er, Chas. Brinkham, Cyril Dennen, Max Bolte, Albert Smith, Luther Hough, Misses Margaret Restarick, Ramona Marks, Robertson, Thelma Murphy, Carol Low, Charinda Low, Margaret Center and Helen Center.

The box office at Wall, Nichols Co. will be opened on Monday morning.

Mrs. Fairchild has been seen in town this week, but will be away on Tuesday next. Miss Helen Macfarlane went to Kama on Tuesday.

Mrs. Walter Brinesford will remain at Lale for two weeks longer. She is gradually regaining her health.

GIRLS WHO WORK

Girls who work for their living are especially exposed to the dangers of organic feminine disorders. Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions; walking to and from their places of employment in bad weather all tend to break down their delicate feminine organism.

No class of women are in need of greater assistance, and thousands of letters like the following demonstrate the fact that

LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND restores the feminine system to a strong, healthy, normal condition.

Miss Abby F. Barrows, of Nelsonville, Ohio, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I was very sick, had dull headaches, pain in my back, and a feminine weakness. I had been to several doctors and they did me no good. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me feel so much better that I hope every woman who suffers as I did will try it."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN. For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for feminine ills, and has positively cured thousands of women. Why don't you try it?

Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice.
